ALDO LAMBERTI'S FAMILY OF RESTAURANT

We welcome Aldo Lamberti's Family of Restaurants as our newest Board Member of the Chamber.

Aldo Lamberti immigrated to the United States from Naples, Italy with his family at the age of thirteen. He worked alongside his father in a family owned pizzeria in Brooklyn throughout his teenage years, learning how to craft the perfect pizza and make traditional Italian specialties. As an adult, he decided to return to Italy to further expand his knowledge of Italian cuisine and culture.

He returned to Cherry Hill, NJ in 1985, where he opened his first restaurant, which rapidly became popular with local residents. Two years later, he opened Caffe Aldo Lamberti, which has become the Family of Restaurants flagship location. A South Jersey landmark for over 25 years, and just minutes from Philadelphia, Caffe Aldo Lamberti features mouthwatering seafood selections in a contemporary atmosphere, as well as multiple private rooms for all kinds of occasions.

Another restaurant opened by Lamberti's Family is Positano Coast, located in Center City Philadelphia. Surrounded by a serene backdrop reminiscent of the Amalfi Coast, the restaurant in Old City offers inspired Italian cuisine. From the cobalt blue floor to the spectacular life-sized postcards covering the walls, the restaurant's décor evokes an Italian seaside holiday. Beautiful views and flowing white curtains accent the relaxing and fresh dining room. With a 360-degree view of historic Philadelphia, the lounge and terrace are wonderful spots for casual cocktails or dining under the stars. The restaurant specializes in fresh seafood, "crudo" (the Italian version of sashimi) and creative variations on

Discover Olbia

The town of Olbia, located in Northern Sardinia in the Gallura region, is a center for industry, tourism and culture. The Industrial Provincial North-East Sardinia Gallura Consortium has its headquarters there. The Consortium organizes and manages all the industrial activities occurring in the area. Located on the coast of Sardinia, Olbia's nautical industry is vast. As for tourism, the town is in close proximity to the Costa Smeralda, a world-famous beach vacation destination, and the airline Meridiana has its head office there. Olbia is home to the Church of San Simplicio, a fine example of Romanesque architecture built entirely of granite. In addition, the town is close to two of Sardinia's most interesting monuments from the 8th-6th century B.C., Cabu Abbas and Sacred Well of Sa Testa.
